POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

The government is working in conjunction with various foreign governments to apprehend the above captioned defendants who are currently located outside of the United States. In order to prepare the necessary documents under the relevant extradition treaties, the government must submit certified copies of arrest warrants and charging documents to the foreign governments who are seeking to assist the United States.

II.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the government respectfully requests that the Court temporarily unseal the instant arrest warrants and the instant complaint so that certified copies can be provided to foreign governments in an effort to apprehend the above captioned defendants.
